

~~The Journey
to Self Improvement..~~

Surrender to Darkness

Everywhere I see are blinding lights. Polished diamonds with prefect edges.

Is this the humanistic
flight?

Optimize this optimize that. Eat this and in that amount. Do this Do that.
Learn this Learn that.

NO

To push death as far away as possible. This is the collective imaginary. To imagine a world where nothing is unknown and materialize it.

WHO WOULD THROW THAT AWAY?

To fill all the gaps and voids in our being. You are at fault for leaving a gaping hole in you. Everybody sees that and you will never know love.

03

All of society is doing that.
What are you? A fucking loser?

For mass to exist, there must be void.

There should be an invisible dark force to counteract the attractive effect of mass. One which is fundamentally unknown; a dark matter???

04

Else, the universe collapses on itself.

No, I am too big and too rich.
Even my death as I fall on myself will be a tragedy worthy of contending with the Greeks.

05

You exist in any carefully planned event of society and yet, you bear no claim to existence.
No wonder you do not feel alive.

Only the symbolic will restore your life. This imaginary is shattered in its presence.

The thing is kiddo,
you cannot know until you live
your life.
